This and That

The weather man must have smiled when we requisitioned a "sunny May" for 1955, for he had in store for us the coldest, wettest May in many a year. Followed by high temperatures for first of June. All of which contributed to a more or less unsatisfactory season. So it might be well to feign indifference for a change.

*Not talk about the weather, or ask for rain or shine.
Or anticipate the season, whether Spring or Summertime. For whatever 'tis we want, it's bound to be t'other.
Season after season, one way or another. Won't expect too much, but accept whatever shows. A kind of Iris Nirvana no hybridizer knows! But if we could do it, it would be a wonder, sure. No worry, or excitement, but perhaps also no allure. Well, that for resolutions,
—now back to everyday. Completely off the record,— feeling much the same old way.*

It couldn't be otherwise, for this should be a most interesting season. As you've heard, Mr. Tompkins moved Fleur de Lis Gardens to Canby, adding this up-to-date planting to those already here. Now it is possible to visit, within a radius of a mile or two, Grant Mitsch, Ronald Beattie, Tompkins and DeForests. With Portland only twenty-five miles to the north, it is quite an Iris center, here.

On visiting Dr. Riddle's garden last season, we were intrigued by the quality of his seedlings. He does not, as yet, have "thousands," but works for top form, style, substance and branching. No. G25A was an example of this. It was here where we also enjoyed beautiful bloom on Regina Maria. Keene Valley and others were also at their best. Dr. Riddle's collection of native Iris and hybrids is well known and outstanding.

We are looking forward to blooming the famed Brigadoon. To Dark Halo, Ylem and other new varieties. And as guests, the introductions of Dr. Randolph. Also, some new "reds." You are well acquainted with the Tompkins' introductions,—Defiance, Privateer, Crescendo, etc. And of late, some good results are showing in my own work for reds. Tall Chief, being introduced this year, has very brilliant, clean coloring.

I couldn't conclude without telling of our trip to Idaho. We arrived at Mrs. Nelson's on a perfect morning after a rain. A long paragraph could be written about this pleasant visit and the Iris folk whom we met there. But will have to confine comments to mention only of Mrs. Nelson's having accomplished the "impossible." Seedlings of Gaylord, which, with other developments, created real interest. On the return trip, we stopped to see the Delphinium as well as Iris at the Samuelson's. These hybrid Delphinium are amazing, and surely shared honors with the Iris. After viewing the Samuelson's garden, we went on to the Davidson's where we were treated a bountiful buffet supper, after enjoying more fine Iris bloom. Our trip was a quick up-and-back affair, with no time to visit in Walla Walla, Wenatchee, and other points as we had hoped to do.

It is a pleasure to add to our Selected List such noted names as Big Game, Caramel, Cascadian, Celestia, Black Taffeta, Brigadoon, Butterhorn, Crescendo, Frances Craig, Great Day, Hermit Thrush, Lady Rogers, Mojave Gold, Monkshood, Pink Fulfillment, Queen's Lace, Regina Maria, Sky Crystal, Smiling Light, Wide World, and a number of other top Iris varieties.

And now Folks,—a pleasant season to all.

1956 Introductions

IRMA MELROSE. Height 38 inches. Three perfectly spaced branches and a three-bud terminal. Blooms over a long period and is always lovely, through storm or extreme temperatures. Unusually large flowers of excellent substance. Falls, 3x4 inches, with very wide haft. Lemon yellow standards and styles. Falls, lighter in hue, with distinct border of lemon yellow. The flower is crisp, ruffled, flaring and graceful. An all-around beauty. Seedling of Caroline Jane. $25.00

It was indeed a pleasure to name the above variety for such a wonderful person, and Iris enthusiast, as Mrs. J. L. Melrose.

SNOW DREAM. Height 36 inches. Excellent stalk. A seedling of Katherine Fay crossed Rehobeth. Same texture and satin sheen as Rehobeth. Falls wide, rounded, horizontal, and slightly ruffled. White, with bright lemon colored beard. Standards white, flushed light violet blue, deeper at the base. Light violet blue styles. A sparkling, clean flower in an interesting pattern. $20.00

GRAND TETON. Height 36-40 inches. Three well-spaced branches and terminal. Flowers measure 7-8 inches. Wide standards, 3½x4 inches; arched, very ruffled, and of excellent substance. Huge, ruffled styles like an oncobred. Falls wide, 3½x4 inches, with 2½-3 inch haft; also very ruffled. A near self of wax yellow, falls slightly deeper. Parentage: No. 5-47B crossed Cloudcap. (No. 52-20). $25.00

SNOW FIRE. Height 36 inches. Flower of good size and substance on strong stalk. A sharp contrast of white-white with clean haft, and bright red beard. Seedling of Cluff's White crossed Cloudcap. $20.00

ALL HONEY. Height 34 inches. Of graceful form, having closed standards and flaring falls. On well-branched stalk. Golden honey-colored self. A charmer that has been termed "a honey" from its first blooming. Limit, one to a customer. $20.00

CASCADE DAWN. Height 36 inches. Well-branched stalk. A bright blend of good size and form. (Seedling No. 52-10). Blended rose, pink, and lavender, the rose predominating. From tangerine bearded pink breeding, but does not have the red beard. Parentage, pink-blend seedling crossed Frances Kent. $15.00

MOON FANTASY. Height 36 inches. Excellent branching. A large flower of pale lemon-cream, with a doubling-up of "lace" edge. Substance to take the weather. Blooms over a long period and is very attractive. From a seedling of Chantilly crossed Sharon Kay, crossed with a white, lace-edged seedling of Dave Hall's. $20.00

TALL CHIEF. Height 36 inches and over. A very bright, richly colored red self without haft markings. Falls grow out horizontal; with brilliant orange beard. Three of these flowers out at once, perfectly spaced, make an exhibition stalk. Brazil Red and Carmine (Ridgeway) is the nearest to the fine coloring of this variety. Limit, one to a customer. $25.00

LULA MARGUERITE. Height 38 inches. Excellent branching. An outstanding variety, and one of the most unusual of the fascinating results from use of tangerine-bearded pink. From a sky-blue seedling (No. 12), crossed Cloudcap. The ground color is iridescent blue blend. Haft, bright gold leaf. Standards and falls bordered gilt, being heavier around the falls. Most remarkable, midribs of standards are flushed gold leaf, with fine radiating lines of the same. This bright gilt trim has the appearance of having been painted on. $25.00

VIOLET HILLS. Height 38-40 inches. Perfect branching. A very large flower of excellent substance. Nearly horizontal falls. A self of glistening Fluorite Violet, with blue-tipped beard. A clean, clear color. No haft markings. A real beauty. Much deeper in coloring, and entirely distinct from First Violet, although of the same top quality. Violet Hills was to have been introduced in 1957, but requests for it persuaded us to allow it to come out a year earlier. Limited, one to a customer. $35.00

Recent DeForest Originations

ARGUS PHEASANT—

(1948) Large, smooth, flaring flowers of golden Argus brown, on tall, well-branched stalk.

REHOBETH—

(1953) "Peace in the Valley." Named for the estate of the late Thura Truax Hires. A fine flower of pale sky blue. Of excellent form and substance, with satin sheen. The form and character of this variety is unlike that of any other blue Iris we know. It has been called "a classic." Comments received last year, from Southern California to New England, from Montana to Ohio, accorded generous praise to Rehobeth. $17.50

RODEO—

(1947) Very large, tall, yellow and white plicata. Parent of some interesting new ones. $1.00

SERGEANT BUCK—

(1953) Very colorful bright brown blend. $7.50

SPARKIE—

(1953) Intriguing plicata. Rich yellow ground. Standards flushed rosy brown. Falls cadmium yellow (like a deep egg yolk hue) in the center, heavily lined and bordered the color of the standards. Bronze beard tipped orange, far out on the fall. Photogenic. $5.00

SPRING SONNET—

(1953) Large flowers, having near-white standards and cream-yellow falls. Tall, well-branched. Flowers largest in warm weather. From pink breeding. $10.00
